

Notes Along the Way to the Silver Convention.

WINNEMUCCA DEPOT, Tuesday, July 25, 1:45 P. M. Conductor Coates with a pleasant smile and clear voice that would ring with a loud hurrah for silver says, "all aboard!" Whew! says the engine; the driving wheels of our iron horse begin to turn, and we are en route to the great meeting of the Bimetallic league at Chicago. Nevada's life blood is being drained; she means business; and Humboldt county, ever true to the white metal, sends her delegate. Her chosen representative feels a little strange to think of what his trip means. His railroad ticket says: "Description of passenger: male, slim, young, light eyed, light haired, mustache." There you have it according to Mr. Ferraro's punch marks, and full enough for an advertisement in a matrimonial journal.

Slim—little in avoirdupois, and young in years; what can he do in the interest of silver? Do his best, and no more. He has been to conventions, associations, and conferences before, but they have been along other lines of Christian service. This is to be a new experience. Call it a silver convention if you please, and that is what it is, but surely there are moral interests involved in the strenuous efforts now being made to destroy the people's money, that to prevent if possible its further degradation, and to seek to restore it to its position provided for in the constitution and needed in behalf of the country is a Christian service. With this conviction and faith your representative feels that he is in the line of duty and fears not.

At Battle Mountain they said, "everybody in Nevada is for silver." Certainly. Here the thought of the blue feeling at Austin came into mind, bringing with it a little righteous indignation.

Palisade is reached, and Ruby Hill and Eureka are thought of. As many as three hundred cars of ore have been received at this point in one day from these camps. It was thought that July and August would be the best months in the year. But alas! instead of an increased shipment of ore, the mines have shut down.

From Palisade we pass out through one of nature's gateways. To our right the lazy Humboldt creeps along; on either side are tall, rocky, and in places almost perpendicular cliffs. Soon Carlin is reached. Here we change conductors. Carlin seems to be quite a little town, but there are no trees to adorn the place and shade the homes. We never miss the water 'till the well is dry. Leaving Carlin we again wind along under tall cliffs that lift their awful forms from which great boulders have broken away and rolled down their steep sides. Say what you please about the wild barrenness of Nevada's mountains, and call nature cruel in casting up such vast stretches of desolate hills, they have a beauty and attraction peculiarly theirs, and it is interesting and instructive to ride along their base.

Elko is the largest and prettiest town so far seen east of Winnemucca. At the depot I was pleased to meet the Rev. F. S. Witter, pastor of the Presbyterian church. He is a strong believer in free coinage. Well, "The shades of night are falling fast," As from Nevada towns we pass. Out to our hearts there comes good cheer: The dawn of freedom draweth near.

No Use for It.

Several gentlemen have informed us that they have no further use for the San Francisco Examiner, that virulent goldbug sheet and Wall St. lickspittle. No doubt the same sentiment will become general with all of the friends of silver wherever the truckling sheet has a circulation. "Friends in peace; in war, enemies" is the motto of men as well as of nations.

THE GOLD STANDARD

Unconditional Repeal of the Sherman Law Demanded.

Our Monetary System to be Placed in the Hands of Foreign Powers—U. S. Bonds to be Issued to Give the Rothschilds Perpetual Power to Drain the United States of Gold.

The following letter addressed to E. Reinhart & Co., wholesale and retail merchants of this place, explains itself and the methods which Wall street, the European bankers and Grover Cleveland are using to establish the gold standard in America and reduce the American people to an infamous system of peonage and financial slavery. If the New York speculators in the miseries of the people wish to be relieved from the financial disaster which is now paralyzing that English financial province, and which was precipitated on the country by themselves and their foreign allies to scare congress into repealing the Sherman law, let them like the honest men of all countries earn their living by the sweat of their faces and quit purloining the products of the labor of the millions. Then it will not be to their interest to contract the money of the world as it now is, and they will have no further occasion to precipitate a crisis they can't control and thus avoid the boomerang they hurl at the people from descending upon their own heads. The H. B. Claflin company urges the issue of U. S. bonds, specifically payable in gold, in order to deplete the foreign banks of their $750,000,000 of gold and have the same placed in the U. S. treasury. The $750,000,000 may just as well remain where it is as to be piled up in the vaults at Washington. What the people need and the business of the country demands is more money circulating among the people. Instead of issuing more interest bearing bonds to sell to foreign banks for the $750,000,000, of gold and thus extend the time in which these banks may continue to draw gold from this country and thus give the shylocks further opportunity to precipitate a financial crisis to induce another issue of bonds and so on ad infinitum, let the $500,000,000 of silver coin and bullion now in the treasury and the $90,000,000 of gold reserve be paid out and get into the business channels of trade and the hands of the people, and let our mints be open to the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold. Let the United States run its own financial boat independently of "the Bank of England, the Bank of France, the Bank of Germany, the Bank of Austria-Hungary, the Bank of the Netherlands, the Bank of Belgium and the Bank of Spain" or the house of the H. B. Claflin company, and if the house last aforesaid don't like the American independent policy let it move, bag and baggage, to one of these countries above named, which have such an ideal financial system. We can spare it and a thousand other such goldbug houses, which are a curse to this nation of American patriots. We can assure the H. B. Claflin company that "the ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" can't win in the present contest. Below is the electioneering document to which we refer:

THE H. B. CLAFLIN CO., JOHN CLAFLIN, President.

Legitimate Business.

The goldbug shylocks may learn a lesson from Mr. Hooper's turkey gobble and go into some productive industry that will benefit the community, instead of contracting the currency and attempting to establish the gold standard. Mr. Hooper informed us this morning that he set his turkey hen with a setting of eggs. She sickened and died and the gobble at once quit strutting around and took her place on the nest and hatched out nine young turkeys, which he is raising with all the care of a mother. He, it seems, is determined that there shall be no contraction in the supply of turkeys.

What the gobble will do for another setting of eggs is a question not yet determined. To supply this deficiency no doubt the "H. B. Claflin company" of New York would recommend the repeal of the Sherman law and the buying of eggs in Europe with gold or United States bonds.

Drowned While Bathing.

A Spaniard named Rafael Gabrica was drowned last Monday while bathing in Shaw's hot springs near Carson. The water was less than six feet deep.

NO PAY CAR.

The Financial Depression Affecting the Railroad Company.

The Southern Pacific company will not pay off its employees this month. General Superintendent Fillmore had a conference with representatives of the various railroad men's organization at Sacramento day before yesterday, financial matters being under discussion.

Mr. Fillmore talked plainly to the men, saying it was not the desire to act arbitrarily in the matter or hide anything from them. He explained to the meeting that the country is now in the midst of a great financial depression and money cannot be secured anywhere even on gilt edged security.

"This depression and the falling off of traffic has very materially affected the revenues of the company," said Mr. Fillmore, "and the directors have decided that it would be necessary to hold back the pay car until the 15th of August, on which date the car will be here to pay the June wages." He also said that it would come again during the first week in September to pay the July earnings.

It was explained to the men that the company would greatly appreciate their co-operation in assisting it to meet its obligations, the heaviest of which are now at hand. The men were assured that the company had no desire to keep back the wages a moment longer than necessary.

The various representatives present then stepped forward and said that while the wages were most desirable they fully appreciated the trying position in which the company as well as other large corporations is placed. They have fully decided to stand by the railroad company. They had faith in the announcement that the pay car would arrive here upon the time specified.

All the men received hearty thanks for their expressions of loyalty to their employers.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which the ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

A WOMAN'S REMEDY FOR INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM.

I am an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism. The past winter it came upon me again, very acute and severe. My joints swelled and became inflamed, sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise it did both. I have used three fifty cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swelling extant. D. E. CARR, 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City, Mo. For sale by Eagle Drug Store.

Without a Competitor.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Is so far beyond other brands of baking powders in its purity, wholesomeness and leavening power that it is practically without a competitor. Adulteration prevails to such an extent that the consumer in many sections is at the mercy of the venders of the ammonia and alum baking powders. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder prepared by a physician of high standing, and almost the only pure Cream of Tartar powder to be obtained.
